

Willis launches Yacht & Pleasure Craft insurance web site

Willis Group Holdings Limited, the world's largest and most respected name in Marine insurance and reinsurance, has this week launched a specialist web site for Yacht and Pleasure Craft insurance. To view the site, go to:

<http://www.willis.com/yachting>

For the first time prospective clients will be able, via the Internet, to obtain information outlining the services Willis Marine can offer and to print or download a Proposal Form to obtain a quotation.

Because Willis has many pre-established relationships with most of the main Yacht Risk Carriers world-wide, it is able to provide cost effective protection against all the perils of sea, lakes or other navigable waters. In addition, it can provide Third party liability cover not only for sailors but also for water skiers, jet skiers and wave runners as well as cover for all aspects of the yacht construction process.
