WILLIS LAUNCHES CLIENT-FOCUSED, SEMI-MONTHLY WEBCAST SERIES

New York, NY, November 1, 2004 – As an element of its Client Advocate model, Willis Group Holdings (NYSE: WSH), the global insurance broker, announces today a series of semi-monthly webcasts. Approximately every two weeks, Willis Practice Group Leaders will come together with the insurance and risk management community to discuss a wide range of client-focused issues impacting companies around the world.

The first webcast, focusing on Executive Risks and proliferating liabilities for directors and officers, will take place on November 4. That will be followed by a November 18 session on Property issues including TRIA, multiple hurricane deductibles, reinsurance and more. Other webcasts will follow.

Call-in and webcast details will be available on Willis.com and via press releases announcing each event. To learn more about the series, call The Willis Client Hotline at (866) 704-5115 and ask for details on the Willis Thought Leadership Initiative.
