Brandi Joins Willis' North American Specialist Resources Program

New York, NY, August 30, 2005 – Willis Group Holdings Limited (NYSE:WSH), the global insurance broker, announces the appointment of Scott Brandi as Senior Vice President in the MountainGuard<sup>SM</sup> Program. He is based in Glen Falls, New York.

Brandi joins from Associates of Glen Falls, where he was Senior Vice President and Partner. In his new capacity at Willis, Brandi is charged with developing and successfully executing a strategy that will increase Willis' MountainGuard<sup>SM</sup> market share while assisting producers with organic growth tools. He will also be involved with the ResortGuard<sup>SM</sup> Program and the newly formed RinkGuard Program, in a similar capacity.

Brandi's prior experience includes 20 years of ski resort insurance expertise. He has held senior underwriter positions at both the Hartford and AIG. He was also responsible for developing and managing the successful Winter Sports Safety Group, a unique program that offers Workers Compensation insurance to the winter sports industry in New York.

Brandi's affiliations include serving on the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of the Ski Areas of New York, Inc. as well as serving on the West Mountain Ski Educational Foundation Board of Directors.
