Jack Yelverton Joins Willis Group in San Diego Office

New York, NY, June 28, 2005 – Willis Group Holdings (NYSE: WSH), the global insurance broker, today announces that Jack Yelverton has joined Willis' San Diego, California operations as Managing Partner (CEO).

In this new capacity, Yelverton is charged with identifying potential acquisitions, recruiting talented individuals and assisting producers with organic growth tools, for their San Diego operations. Yelverton, previously Industry Practices Leader at Marsh, brings 15 years of insurance experience, specifically within the technology and life sciences industries to Willis.

While at Marsh, he was responsible for leading the Industry Practices Group for their North American Western Region focusing his risk practice expertise within the Directors and Officers Liability and general Property and Casualty areas. As a management professional, Yelverton's extensive experience includes the Executive Risk, Client Advisory and Business Development sectors.

Welcoming Yelverton, Regional Executive Officer of the Western Region of Willis North America, Arlene Corsetti said, "Willis is concentrating much effort on strengthening our presence in key North American markets. With Jack's appointment, I am confident that our business presence in the San Diego area will not only intensify, but grow. His reputation within the industry is impeccable and I have no doubt he will be a great asset to our Southern California operations."

Willis Group Holdings Limited is a leading global insurance broker, developing and delivering professional insurance, reinsurance, risk management, financial and human resource consulting and actuarial services to corporations, public entities and institutions around the world. With over 300 offices in over 100 countries, its global team of 15,800 Associates serves clients in 180 countries. Additional information on Willis may be found on its web site: www.willis.com.
