Willis' Employee Benefits National Director Harriet Hankin to Deliver Keynote at "Companies That Care Symposium"

New York, NY, May 18, 2006 – Harriet Hankin, National Director of Business Development for Willis' Employee Benefits Practice, delivered a keynote address at the "Companies That Care Symposium" on May 17 at the Radnor Hotel, Radnor, PA. The Companies That Care Symposium topic is Building Blocks for a Dynamic Workforce: A Community Symposium.

Recognizing the critical role of retaining a company's most valuable resource, employees, Hankin described the five trends that will shape a company's future as it applies to their workforce. These trends included:

- Longevity: The Aging Workforce
- New Household Types
- Four Generations in the Workforce
- We Are Very Blended and Very Diverse
- Trust, Respect and Ethics
