Willis Strengthens Continental European Operations --Appoints New Regional CEO--

London, UK, November 26, 2007 – Willis Group Holdings (NYSE:WSH), the global insurance broker, today announced that Flavio Piccolomini, former CEO of Willis' Italian operations, Willis Italia Spa, has been appointed CEO for Continental Europe, including the Nordic region. He will report to Allan Gribben, CEO of Willis International and will be based in Milan. Piccolomini's role as CEO of Willis Italia will be taken over by Guido De Spirt.

Willis Continental Europe has approximately 2,000 Associates. The Eastern European countries will form part of a new Emerging Markets division led by Sarah Turvill, Chairman, Willis International and CEO, Willis Emerging Markets, which will build on the Group's existing strength in Asia, the Middle East, Russia, Eastern Europe and South Africa.

Commenting on Piccolomini's appointment, Allan Gribben, CEO of Willis International said, "Under Flavio's leadership, Willis Italia has distinguished itself with excellent growth. We are confident that together with his strong international management team, he will create further commercial synergies and common platforms between the regional offices to improve efficiency and provide even greater service levels to Willis clients."

Willis Group Holdings Limited is a leading global insurance broker, developing and delivering professional insurance, reinsurance, risk management, financial and human resource consulting and actuarial services to corporations, public entities and institutions around the world. Including our Associates, we have over 300 offices in some 100 countries, with a global team of approximately 16,000 employees serving clients in some 190 countries. Additional information on Willis may be found on its web site: www.willis.com.
