

ACCIDENT AND HEALTH

CORPORATE PA AND TRAVEL

With the ever-increasing emphasis on duty of care, companies need to provide the best protection possible to their personnel throughout the world.

Corporate Personal Accident and Business Travel Insurance ensures financial compensation and assistance should the unfortunate happen. The company decides how best to use the money. It could be used to soften the blow to the business, be paid directly to the affected employee or their family, or even used to employ a suitable replacement.

The Willis Accident and Health Team have a large portfolio of Group Personal Accident and Business Travel Insurance for multinational companies. Our growing portfolio comprises over 100,000 business travellers.

In addition we design solutions to international governmental, non-governmental and supra-national bodies. This portfolio of business covers over 100,000 additional insured persons from 30 different entities for Group Personal Accident, Travel and Malicious Acts products.

Policies are designed to provide protection against the adverse financial consequences of accidents or illnesses of employees. Coverage is also provided to safeguard money, travel documents and personal property and to compensate for delays whilst travelling on business.
