

Donald J. Bailey
Chief Executive Officer, Willis North America

Don Bailey serves as Chief Executive Officer of Willis North America and is responsible for leading the organization's strategic direction through its 65 offices and 3,200 associates in the US and Canada. He is also a member of the Willis Partner's Group.

Don joined Willis in March, 2003. Since then he has built and led several of the Willis product, industry and segment practices. Most recently, he was the Chief Operating Office of Willis North America.

Prior to joining Willis, Don was with Allianz Insurance Company in Chicago where he served as Chief Underwriting Officer of the Specialty Risk Lines. He also served Aon and Marsh over a 14-year period in various capacities.

Don graduated from Allegheny College with a BS in Economics. He holds an MBA from Eastern University.