

John J. Bullock
President
Willis of Mississippi, Inc.

John Bullock joined Willis of Mississippi as President in 1990. He is responsible for the development and handling of large marine, commercial property and casualty and casino/gaming accounts. His specialization in both land-based and navigating casinos has led to his appointment as a Director of the Willis Gaming Practice. As a Client Advocate, he is involved in the analysis, marketing, servicing and implementation of both loss prevention and claim management programs. John is accountable for all product lines and oversees the day-to-day operation of his client's accounts. His primary function is to advocate with insurance companies on behalf of his clients.

John is a member of the Willis Exceptional Producers Council and provides brokerage services to a number of prominent marine and gaming clients. In fact, Risk & Insurance Magazine listed him in the top 100 powerbrokers in the industry, based on his expertise in the gaming sector. In January 2006, John was recognized as the Number One producer for Willis in 2005.

He entered the insurance business in 1978, with the Eselin Real Estate and Insurance Agency. In 1985, he was named Vice President of the corporation and the corporate name was changed to Eselin-Bullock & Associates, Inc. His duties included the handling of several large commercial property and casualty accounts, as well as managing the Marine Department.

John received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1976, majoring in Political Science, with a minor in Banking and Finance.
