

Chris C. Hills, CPCU
Senior Vice President
Willis Risk Solutions

Chris Hills is a Senior Vice President in Willis' Nashville office. She is responsible for new business development and managing the service needs of large Property and Casualty clients. As a member of the Risk Solutions Group, she has access to national and international resources in the Willis organization.

Prior to joining Willis in 2000, Chris served as a Vice President and Broker with another major brokerage firm. During her eight-year tenure, she had a strong focus in the manufacturing and service sectors. Previously, she also served as an Account Executive with a large direct writer of insurance where she wrote both Property and Casualty and Employee Benefits accounts.

Before entering the risk and insurance industry, Chris was a secondary school teacher teaching economics, political science and geography.

Chris is a frequent speaker at industry seminars and conferences. Most recently, she presented "A Market Update on Environmental Coverages," as a featured speaker at I-Day for the Tennessee Chapter of PCU.

Chris graduated from the University of South Carolina with a BA in Political Science. She has also completed 30 hours toward her Masters at Georgia State. In 1999, she earned her Chartered Property & Casualty Underwriters (CPCU) designation.

Chris is also an active member on the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement. The group is dedicated to teaching young Americans how business and commerce operate in the US.
